

Office of the Secretary of State
VOTER REGISTRATION REPORT - Dec 31, 2007

Executive Summary. Once the November 2007 general election was complete and county elections officials inactivated voters w undeliverable mail, the number of active, registered voters in Washington fell to its lowest level since November 6, 2006. The electorate "aged" slightly, as expected whenever overall registration numbers decrease. We continue to use our April 2007 estimate of the voting-eligible population, producing an estimated "percentage registered" figure 72.4%.
